IBIZA

A Spanish island in the western Mediterranean, Ibiza is famously known for its bustling nightlife, mystical historical sites, and natural scenic beauty.

It's the third-largest and the most popular of all Balearic Islands and attracts thousands of tourists every year from all over the world, especially in the summer.

While it's mainly known for its party scene, Ibiza also boasts beautiful beaches, fantastic shopping, and exciting festivals.

Ibiza became famous for its hippie movement and later for young tourism and clubbing, becoming the party capital of Europe. Tourists have been drawn to Ibiza because of its beautiful beaches and pleasant climate.

DJs travel the world to play at its world-famous nightclubs, chic beach clubs and banging pool parties.
